INTRODUCTION to BOULES/Petanque

Weds 13th July at 7.0pm
Teddington Village Hall
[City, ST]

With the renovation of the Boules Piste approximately 30 people have expressed interest in playing the game. David Longney lives in Teddington and has spent 30 years holidaying in France and playing Petanque with the French. He has very kindly volunteered to share his knowledge of how the game is played with its different formats for family, social or even the competitive - Alstone v Teddington?. The instruction in the village hall will be for about half an hour, followed by demonstration and participation

A GAME FOR ALL _ YOUNG AND NOT SO YOUNG
